For reflection...

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centred;
Forgive them anyway.
If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives;
Be kind anyway.
If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies;
Succeed anyway.
If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you;
Be honest and frank anyway.
What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight;
Build anyway.
If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous;
Be happy anyway.
The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow;
Do good anyway.
Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough;
Give the world the best you've got anyway.
You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God;
It was never between you and them anyway.

Prayer for the week

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech you, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right, that we, who cannot do anything that is good without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Adelaide Anglicans

Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

Even in utter despair the Psalmist finds hope, telling us that with the Lord there is mercy, forgiveness, and ample redemption. May we realize this, knowing that we can start with a clean slate in God's eyes, if we would only put our trust in the divine mercy.

Pray that you will be merciful whenever the opportunity arises this week. Pray that others will forgive your offences this week.

Mary, Mother of our Lord

Wednesday, 15th August

Both the Psalmist's words, and the Song of Mary (the Magnificat) make it plain that God's heart has a special place for the poor. God raises them up to lofty places. We see this particularly in Mary, the peasant teenager through whom God decided to take on human flesh, becoming one of us.

Pray that like Mary, you will bring God to birth in the world around you.
