Prayer for the week

O God, the protector of all that trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
increase and multiply upon us your mercy,
that, with you as our ruler and guide,
we may so pass through things temporal that we finally lose not the things eternal.
Grant this, O heavenly Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen. Adelaide Anglicans

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

The Psalmist tells us that God is with the 'company of the righteous' and so for us to be with God we need to be among them. We need to be just, kind and humble (Micah 6.8) and not follow King David's example of self-centred iniquity.
Pray for the grace to be just, kind and humble in whatever you do.
Pray for the Church of Bangladesh, giving thanks for the work they do to further God's mission in the world.

St Stephen, Deacon and Martyr

Friday 3 August

The Psalmist says, 'I hate those that clutch vain idols but my trust is in the Lord'. May our trust be in the Lord too, eschewing the idols of prestige, wealth and power. Like St Stephen, may we endure to the end, no matter what the cost.
Pray for all deacons and archdeacons. Giving thanks for their ministries.
Pray for the Church of North India, giving thanks for the work they do to further God's mission in the world.
