Prayer for the week

Almighty and everlasting God,
you are always more ready to hear than we to pray,
and give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy,
forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid,
and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask,
save through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ,
your Son our Lord. Amen.

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

The forces of chaos might threaten to overwhelm the disciples, yet fear is not the right response but faith. Even when we feel like we have nothing, we do through faith possess everything.

Pray for strength and faith at times when we might feel overwhelmed or overcome by afflictions. Help us Lord to see what we truly possess.

Pray for the Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan, giving thanks for the work they do to further God's mission in the world.

St Peter and St Paul, apostles and martyrs

29 June

There is unexpected freedom for Peter in the reading from Acts 'the chains fell off his wrists' yet for Paul he is already being poured out as libation. There is freedom, there are times of weary extension but both are in God's hands. God's curious freedom will even take us to places we would rather not go.

Pray for places dedicated to St Peter and St Paul, pray for ourselves when we have been poured out as a libation and taken to places we have not chosen.
