Prayer of the week

Loving Jesus,
you know how I desire to be a follower of yours.
Order my heart that over and beyond all my loves,
my love of you will lead and order my days.
Give me the courage to face all within myself that hinders me from following you with a full heart. Amen.

4th Sunday after Pentecost

We read today that Jesus says: Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. How amazing is that? If we are welcomed, Jesus is welcomed, and so is his Father, the Creator of the universe. Yet with that comes great responsibility. We need to show God's love, free and abundant, to all, helping others to see God's glory through us. And what is God's glory? As St Irenaeus tells us, it is a person fully alive (Gloria Dei vivens homo). Help us, Lord Jesus, to bring your love to others so that they may fully live.

Pray that nothing will deter us from making God our first priority. Give thanks for all those who help others in Christ's name to find fullness of life by showing them God's copious, unconditional love.

Peter and Paul, Apostles and Martyrs

29 June

Today we celebrate the two great missionaries – St Peter and St Paul, both of whom were martyred for their faith in Jesus Christ. Both faced great hardships for Christ as they ministered to the communities in which they worked, suffering martyrdom. May we, their successors in the faith, be empowered by the same Spirit that caused them to proclaim God's love both locally and globally throughout our interconnected world.

Pray that we too can effectively proclaim God's love in our homes and families, our suburbs and towns, our country and our world.

Give thanks for the work and witness of St Peter's Cathedral, Adelaide; and St Peter's Cathedral, Armidale.

Give thanks for the work and witness of St Paul's Cathedral, Bendigo; St Paul's Cathedral, Melbourne; St Paul's Cathedral, Rockhampton; and St Paul's Cathedral, Sale.

Give thanks for those who leave the comforts of home in order to bring God's love to others.
