

5th Sunday after Pentecost

5th July 2020

Marjorie Smith's funeral will be held next Tuesday, 7th July at 2.30pm at the Church. Please let Rev'd Michael know if you will be attending, so the family can include you in their planning. You are asked to hold Helen, Ken and their family in your prayers at this time.

Planned giving offerings

It has been identified that some do not wish to mention their names when doing Internet Banking. As an alternative, feel free to use your 'Envelope No.' or indeed, remain anonymous. Internet Banking: Direct Credit (BSB 035-016, Ac no. 147349) Envelopes can also be used on Sundays,

Morning tea

As you are aware the lifting of restrictions is now happening and morning tea is very much in that mix. The wardens are meeting with Michael to discuss the measures that we will need to observe to get morning tea re happening. We are aware that this social activity is very important and we need to ensure that we do it well. Stay tuned for more information. We will do this quickly and safely as we can.

If you have any Pew Sheet notices, contact Vanessa 0412 356 654 or vanessalinke1951@gmail.com by Wednesday 5pm.

Prayer of the week

You are the peace of all things calm
You are the place to hide from harm
You are the light that shines in dark
You are the heart's eternal spark
You are the door that's open wide
You are the guest who waits inside
You are the stranger at the door
You are the calling of the poor
You are my Lord and with me still
You are my love, keep me from ill
You are the light, the truth, the way
You are my Saviour this very day.
You are God

5th Sunday after Pentecost

In the reading from Genesis we read how God brings Rebekah and Isaac together for marriage. Rebekah is blessed by her family and goes with the servants to meet Isaac. As custom demands she puts on a veil so that she may not be seen by her husband-to-be before the wedding.

Pray for all those whose weddings have been delayed or changed by Covid-19.

Give thanks for the Aboriginal peoples of Australia and for their special place in our country.
