BRASS CLEANING

I am in the process of making up a new roster for cleaning the brass in the church and the narthex. We need more people to volunteer, so that the load is not too heavy on just a few. For more information, and / or to include your name, please see me. Thank you Joan

24th Sunday after Pentecost

Today's parable the last in a series of how to be prepared for the coming of the Messiah. The first, a parable contrasting the attitude and behaviour of two household overseers, waiting for the return of the owner of the house - one faithful and one greedy and power hungry. The second about ten young women waiting for the bridegroom - five prepared and five not.

This parable about the use of money (talents) while waiting for the returning Jesus. Our lives as Christians are supposed to be for the benefit of society around us. Sitting quietly in a holy huddle is not an option.

Give us grace to view each day in the light of Christ.

Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church in the Philippines

Keeping in touch

Local events, newsletters from other churches, advertisements for a variety of church activities and letters of thanks are placed on the noticeboards in the hall or in the narthex. Books and other items of interest are placed in the display stand, or on the table in the narthex. There is also a fiction 'library' in the hall for your use.
