COVID-19

It is important that Parishioners should continue physical distancing, (1.5 metres) hand sanitizing etc. and obey the marshal's directions.

Thank you for your co-operation.

Thanks to the COVID Marshals. You are doing a great job !!!

GROCERIES FOR DONATION

Schools Ministry Pastoral Care workers have an urgent need now. Some suitable snacks for the children at recess time appreciated. Our usual recipients, Anglicare and St Paul's will soon be accepting food donations, however monetary donations always welcome.

If you have any Pew Sheet notices, contact Vanessa 0412 356 654 or vanessalinke1951@gmail.com by Wednesday 5pm.

Prayer of the week

O Holy God of Israel,
you faithfully keep the promises
you made to our ancestors
and lead your people into the future, providing hospitality on the way.
Help us who inherit the pilgrim life
to journey faithfully at your command, that we may be a band of disciples called to be sojourners in your service. Amen. .

23rd Sunday after Pentecost

Today's parable is the second in a series of three about how to live in the context of the coming glorious Son of Man. The parable fits in with marriage practice of the time, as far as we know it. The bridegroom goes to the bride's house to sign the marriage contract with the bride's father and then returns with the bride.

His household would greet him. It was assumed that his meeting would take some time, because the young women had all brought lamps. Those who were unprepared missed out. Watch and wait is about living each day as if it is the Day.

Help us to live each day in the light of Christ's coming Kingdom.

Keeping in touch

Local events, newsletters from other churches, advertisements for a variety of church activities and letters of thanks are placed on the noticeboards in the hall or in the narthex. Books and other items of interest are placed in the display stand, or on the table in the narthex. There is also a fiction 'library' in the hall for your use.

Recyclable cans and bottles

Money received from the Congregation bringing their recyclable cans and bottles to the Church is donated to the Heart Foundation. They can be left outside the kitchen door.
