Prayer of the week

O God,
you spoke your word
and revealed your good news in Jesus, the Christ.
Fill all creation with that word again,
so that by proclaiming your joyful promises to all nations and singing of your glorious hope to all peoples,
we may become one living body,
your incarnate presence on the earth. Amen.

Revised Common Lectionary

5th Sunday of Epiphany

Paul is a chameleon. He is a Jew but is now a follower of Christ. Nonetheless, he is all things for all people. He is like a Jew, one under the law, one outside the law, and the weak. In fact, Paul will turn himself into anything to save souls. And the best part is that salvation is free. The grace of God in Jesus Christ is there in all Jesus' healings and castings out of demons and it costs nothing. In one sense. But in another the cost to us is the call to leave all of this world behind and follow Jesus.

Jesus our friend, we ask that you give us courage to leave our selves behind and follow you, trusting in you and relying on your faithfulness to us that we may be confident to proclaim the good news we have in you.

Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East.
