Prayer of the week

Lord God, friend of those in need,
your Son Jesus has untied our burdens
and healed our spirits.

We lift up the prayers of our hearts
for those still burdened, those seeking healing,
those in need within the church and the world.

Revised Common Lectionary

Amen.

18th Sunday after Pentecost

Whether suffering or celebrating, James tells us that we should pray. Of course it's very easy to pray when things suddenly become tough – let's face it we all do that. But since Jesus calls us his friends, should we be the sort of friend who only makes contact when s/he wants a favour? Really, that's being a pretty poor friend. Much better to thank God for all the benefits we are shown and the grace we are freely given.

Lord, help me always to remember with gratitude the kindness you show me day by day.

Michael and All Angels (Michaelmas)

29 September

Today we read from St John the Divine's dream of the end of time when the one who plots against us and accuses us before the throne of God – Satan – is overthrown and cast out of heaven for good. Satan will not have the last laugh. 'The salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah have come [...] Rejoice then, you heavens and all who dwell in them!'

Pray that you can see all the angels that surround your life.
Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of Ceylon

Anglican Diocese of Adelaide Vision 2022 - Prayer For Growth

Living God, we thank you for your vision for the whole creation and that you call us to share in your mission.

We pray that you grow your church: Bring more people to faith in Jesus Deepen our trust in you and knowledge of you
Help us to serve and bless our community

And strengthen us to be generous with the money and resources you give us.

May we grow as disciples of Jesus and make disciples of others for the blessing of the world you love. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.
