Prayer of the week

Eternal One,
whose thoughts and ways are not ours,
you alone are God, awesome, holy, and most high.
School us in the ways of faith and wisdom,
that we, like Job, may learn to truly see and hear,
and in humility find blessing. Amen.

Revised Common Lectionary

21st Sunday after Pentecost

The first two lines of the Servant Song (found in Together in Song) are “Brother, sister let me serve you, let me be as Christ to you”. Serving through acts of kindness does not expect anything in return. The acts of kindness are done with humility – “...and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve...” (Mark 10:44-45). The Song also reminds us “that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.”.

Pray that we will respond to each other with compassion and kindness, reflecting the love of Jesus.

St Luke, Evangelist and Martyr

18 October

Reaching out to others in mission can be an uncomfortable experience. If a number of people make a commitment to serve our Lord in mission, the task is made easier. It is also made easier in the knowledge that the Holy Spirit is with us all the way and that we should understand that the Lord would not send us out except in the knowledge that he believes that we can achieve good results if we focus on his mission. The Lord says that those we meet will be touched by the sense of the presence of the Holy Spirit in us. How encouraging is that?

Pray that we can find the strength to reach out to others in the community in the knowledge that we will be guided by the Holy Spirit.
